On the margin, a seal bearing the national crest that reads: Estados Unidos Mexicanos (Mexican United States).- Presidencia de la Republica (Presidency of the Republic.).

ERNESTO ZEDILLO PONCE DE LEÓN, President of the United Mexican States, in exercise of the power conferred on me by Article 89, fraction I, of the Political Constitution of the United Mexican States, based on articles 27, 28, 31, 32, 32 Bis, 33, 34, 36, 40 and 42 of the Organic Law of the Federal Public Administration and 1, 22, 23, 28, 31, 33, 35, 36 and 38 of the Foreign Investment Law, we have issued the following

REGULATION OF THE FOREIGN INVESTMENT LAW AND THE FOREIGN INVESTMENT NATIONAL REGISTRY

TITLE I

GENERAL PROVISIONS

ARTICLE 1.- For the purposes of this Regulation, in addition to what is established in Article 2. Of the Foreign Investment Law, the following shall mean:

I. Reserved activities: those referred to in Articles 5 and 6 of the law;

II. Activities with specific regulation: those subject to maximum participation limits of investment from foreign, under the terms of the Law and applicable legislation;

III. Law: The Foreign Investment Law;

IV. Majority of foreign capital: the participation of foreign investment in more than 49% of the share capital of a company;

V. Participation of foreign investment in the share capital: the percentage of foreign investment in the capital stock of a company, calculated in relation to the total shares or social shares that do not have the character of neutral investment, and including the shares or social parts affected in trust;

VI. General Resolutions: the criteria for the application of legal and regulatory provisions on foreign investment issued by the Commission, and

VII. Societies: civil, mercantile or of any other character of persons constituted under Mexican law.

ARTICLE 2.- For purposes of subsection r) of fraction III of article 7. Of the Law, the “T” series shares referred to in this subsection represent exclusively the capital contributed in agricultural, livestock or forestry lands, or the one destined to the acquisition of them, in terms of the Agrarian Law.

ARTICLE 3.- The participation regime referred to in Article 9 of the Law, applies to:

I. The acquisition of shares or units of companies already incorporated, and

II. Companies that do not carry out reserved activities or are subject to a specific regulation. In the case of companies carrying out such activities, it will be in accordance with the Law.

In any of these cases, the total value of the assets will be the updated value that they have, in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, at the date of filing the corresponding application. The Commission shall determine the amount referred to in Article 9 of the Law, by means of a General Resolution.

ARTICLE 4.- The public notaries before whom legal acts for which the permits referred to in articles 10 A, 11, 15 and 16 of the Law are formalized, prior to the granting of the respective instrument must require the corresponding permit or, in the assumption of which the afirmativa ficta has operated, the record referred to in article 17 of the Federal Law of Administrative Procedure, and so to make it appear in said instrument.

When permission is not available to locate in the cases referred to in the second paragraph of Article 10 A of the Law, public notaries must request the foreigner, prior to the granting of the public deed, to verify the filing with the Secretariat Of Foreign Affairs of the document referred to in Article 8 of these Regulations, and to record in the corresponding deed that has operated the afirmativa ficta in the terms of said provision.

When dealing with the case provided for in the last paragraph of Article 10 A of the Law, public notaries must request the foreigner, prior to the granting of the public deed, to accredit the presentation to the Secretariat of Foreign Affairs of the agreement referred to in Fraction I of Article 27 of the Political Constitution of the United Mexican States, and which is located in the cases provided for in the general agreements in question, and so make it appear in the public deed.

SECOND TITLE OF THE ACQUISITION OF REAL ESTATE, THE USE OF MINES AND WATERS, AND OF THE TRUSTS

Chapter I
Acquisition of real estate

ARTICLE 5.- For purposes of what is established in Title Two of the Law, real property for residential purposes is that used exclusively for housing for use by the owner or third parties.

By way of example, but not limited to, real estate intended for non-residential activities:

I. Those that are allocated to timeshare;

II. Those destined to some industrial, commercial or tourist activity and that simultaneously are used for residential purposes;

III. Those acquired by credit institutions, financial intermediaries and auxiliary credit organizations, for the recovery of debts owed to them that derive from operations proper to their object;

IV. Those used by legal persons for the fulfillment of their corporate purpose, consisting of the disposal, urbanization, construction, fractionalization and other activities included in the development of real estate projects, up to the moment of their commercialization or sale to third parties, and

V. In general, real estate intended for commercial, industrial, agricultural, livestock, fishing, forestry and service provision activities.

In case of doubt as to whether a property is considered destined to carry out residential activities, the Secretariat of Foreign Affairs will resolve the respective consultation within a period not exceeding ten business days. At the end of this period without issuing a resolution, it will be understood that non-residential activities are carried out in the building in question.

ARTICLE 6.- In case of doubt as to whether a real estate property is located inside or outside the restricted area, the Secretariat of Foreign Affairs, after consulting the National Institute of Statistics, Geography and Informatics, will give a resolution.

ARTICLE 7.- For the purposes of articles 10, fraction I and 16, last paragraph of the Law, the notice that the interested parties must give to the Secretariat of Foreign Affairs shall contain:

I. The location and description of the property;

II. The clear and precise description of the uses to which the property in question will be destined, and

III. Simple copy, in annex, of the public instrument in which the acquisition is formalized.

ARTICLE 8.- Pursuant to the provisions of article 10 A of the Law, in order for foreign natural and legal persons to have access to real estate located outside the restricted zone, or to obtain concessions for the use of waters in national territory, they must:
I. To agree in writing to the Secretariat of Foreign Affairs the provisions of fraction I of Article 27 of the Constitution, in relation to the concessions or real property in question, specifying in this last case, the form and percentage of acquisition;

II. To accredit the legal capacity of the applicant. The natural persons must prove, as the case may be, their legal stay in the country and the migratory quality that, in terms of the law of the matter, allows them to carry out the legal act in question. In the case of legal persons, their legal existence must be accredited by submitting the documents provided for in fraction I of article 21 of these Regulations or by submitting a copy of the authorization referred to in article 17 of the Law.

The documents indicated in the previous paragraph must be legalized before the Mexican consul or, when applicable, apostilled in accordance with the Decree of Promulgation of the Convention, which abolishes the requirement of Legalization of Foreign Public Documents. Documents submitted in a language other than Spanish should be accompanied by a translation made by an expert translator.

III. Accompany, if appropriate, an annex containing the area, measures and vicinity of the property, and

IV. Cover, if applicable, the rights established in the Federal Law of Rights.

In order to conclude the agreement referred to in fraction I of article 27 of the Political Constitution of the United Mexican States through a legal representative, the latter must have a special power, expressly specifying in one of its clauses the agreement and the waiver to which refers to said constitutional provision, or with general power for acts of domain that meets the requirements established by the applicable law.

In the case of concessions for the exploration and use of mines, the provisions of the relevant legislation and regulations will be in force.

Chapter II
Of the trusts on real estate in restricted area

ARTICLE 9.- Requests submitted by credit institutions, through their fiduciary delegate, to obtain the permit referred to in article 11 of the Law, must contain:

I. Name and nationality of trustees;

II. Name of the credit institution that will act as fiduciary;

III. Name and nationality of the trustee and, if any, of the second trustees and of the substitute trustees;

IV. Duration of the trust;

V. Use of the property;

VI. Description, location and surface of the property object of the trust, and

VII. Distance from the property in relation to the border or the Federal Maritime Ground Zone.

The request must be accompanied by an annex that contains the measures and adjoining of the property.

ARTICLE 10.- In the case of foreign individuals or corporations, the Secretariat of Foreign Affairs shall grant the permits referred to in article 11 of the Law, when the application complies with the provisions of the previous article and the property object of the trust is destined to:

I. Parks and industrial divisions;

II. Hotels and motels;

III. Industrial ships;

IV. Malls;

V. Research centers;
VI. Tourist developments, provided that they do not contain real estate intended for residential purposes;

VII. Tourist Marinas;

VIII. Docks and industrial and commercial facilities established therein;

IX. Establishments engaged in the production, processing, packaging, preservation, transport or storage of agricultural, forestry, forestry and fishery products, and

X. Consular offices and official residences of foreign governments.

ARTICLE 11.- The trust agreements that are constituted under the permits provided for in article 11 of the Law must be subject to the following conditions:

I. That the respective public instrument establishes that the foreign trustees agree to consider themselves as Mexicans with respect to their rights as trustees, and not to invoke, therefore, the protection of their governments, under penalty of otherwise losing those rights for the benefit of the nation. The foregoing shall not apply to cases where foreign governments are trustees and that the purpose of the trust is the establishment of consular offices and official residences of foreign governments;

II. That during the whole term of the trust the trust institution retains the title of the real estate trust without granting rights to the trustees;

III. That the fiduciary institution present to the Secretariat of Foreign Affairs, by April of each year, a report on the trusts authorized in case of fiduciary substitution, as well as the designation of substitute trustees or assignment of trust rights in favor of foreign natural persons or corporations, or of Mexican companies with a foreign admission clause, in the case of properties acquired for residential purposes;

IV. That the trustees undertake to inform the fiduciary institution about the fulfillment of the purposes of the trust, and that the latter undertakes to inform the Secretariat of Foreign Affairs on the matter, when required to do so, whenever there are motives to assume non-compliance with the conditions under which the permit was granted;

In case of breach or violation of any of the conditions established in the corresponding permit, the fiduciary institution will have a period of sixty business days to amend or correct them, counted from the date of notification by the Secretariat of Foreign Affairs of Such irregularities; Otherwise, proceed in the terms of fraction VII of this article;

V. That the fiduciary institution obtain prior permission from the Secretariat of Foreign Affairs regarding the extension of the subject and change of the purposes of the trust;

VI. That the fiduciary institution undertakes to notify the extinction of the trust to the Secretariat of Foreign Affairs, within forty business days of its extinction date, and

VII. That the parties to the agreement undertake to extinguish the trust at the request of the Secretariat of Foreign Affairs, within a period of one hundred and eighty days from the date of notification of the request, in case of breach or violation of any of the Conditions established in the corresponding permit.

The permits referred to in article 11 of the Law shall have a validity of one hundred and eighty calendar days counted from the date of issuance. Likewise, the issuance of these permits does not exempt from the fulfillment of the plans and programs of urban development and ecological order of the locality in which the property is located, nor of the sustainability criteria of the environmental policy and other applicable legal dispositions. The Secretariat of Foreign Affairs may extend the validity of the permit for one hundred and eighty additional calendar days, at the written request of the permit holder justifying the intention to use the permit during the requested extension period.
Once the permits referred to in the previous paragraph are used, credit institutions must give notice of such circumstance to the Secretariat of Foreign Affairs within five business days from the date of their formalization in a public instrument.

ARTICLE 12.- For purposes of the provisions of article 13 of the Law, interested parties, through fiduciary institutions, must request the extension of the duration of the trusts to the Secretariat of Foreign Affairs, within ninety business days prior to the extinction of the contract. The extension shall be granted provided that the conditions referred to in the previous article are maintained and fulfilled.

THIRD TITLE OF THE COMPANIES

ARTICLE 13.- Repealed.

ARTICLE 14.- When the exclusion clause of foreigners is not enacted in the bylaws, an express agreement or pact must be signed which forms an integral part of the by-laws, whereby foreign partners, current or future of the company, are obliged before the Secretariat of Foreign Affairs to be considered as nationals in respect of:

I. The shares, shares or rights acquired by said companies;
II. The assets, rights, concessions, interests or interests held by such companies, and
III. The rights and obligations that derive from the contracts in which the companies themselves are parties.

The agreement or pact indicated must include the renunciation to invoke the protection of their governments under penalty, otherwise, to lose to the benefit of the Nation the rights and property that would have acquired.

ARTICLE 15.- Repealed.

ARTICLE 16.- Repealed.

ARTICLE 17.- Repealed.

ARTICLE 18.- Repealed.

ARTICLE 19.- Repealed.

ARTICLE 20.- The notice of modification of the exclusion clause of foreigners for the admission referred to in the second paragraph of article 16 of the Law, must be accompanied by a copy of the public instrument that contains the statutory reform and that includes the agreement to which it refers article 14 of this Regulation. The company in question must state in said notice whether it owns immovable property in the restricted area and the purposes for which it is intended.

TITLE FOUR OF THE INVESTMENT OF FOREIGN LEGAL ENTITIES

ARTICLE 21.- In order to obtain the authorization to establish themselves in national territory and to habitually carry out acts of commerce referred to in article 17 of the Law, foreign legal entities must submit a request in writing, in original and two simple copies, indicating the General identification data of the applicant, as well as the description of the economic activity that it intends to develop in the country.

ARTICLE 24.- International finance corporations for development are considered to be those legal entities whose primary purpose is to promote the economic and social development of developing countries by providing temporary risk capital, granting preferential financing, or providing diverse technical support.

ARTICLE 25. International finance corporations for development, which intend to make a neutral investment in Mexican companies, in accordance with the provisions of article 22 of the Law, must be recognized by the Commission, for which they must submit:

I. Questionnaire duly requested in original and a simple copy, containing the general identification and corporate data of the applicant;

II. Deed, Act, certificate or other instrument of incorporation, as well as bylaws by which the international financial society for development is governed;

III. Financial statements of the international financial corporation for development for the last fiscal year, if the company has more than one year of being incorporated, and

IV. Financial statements projected to three years, in case the international financial corporation for development has a year or less to be incorporated.

The foreign documents must be legalized before the Mexican consul or, when applicable, apostilled in accordance with the Decree of Promulgation of the Convention, which abolishes the requirement of Legalization of Foreign Public Documents.

Documents submitted in a language other than Spanish should be accompanied by a translation made by an expert translator.

These companies must obtain a favorable resolution from the Commission to participate in the capital of Mexican companies that carry out reserved or regulated activities.

In order to obtain the favorable resolution, it will be necessary for each specific project to comply with the provisions of Article 29 of this Regulation.

TITLE SIX

OF THE FOREIGN INVESTMENT NATIONAL COMMISSION

ARTICLE 26. The Executive Secretary of the Commission shall be the public servant appointed by the President of that body, who for the exercise of his functions shall be assisted by a Technical Secretary, a public servant appointed by the latter.

For the purposes of article 25 of the Law, public servants who are members of the Committee of Representatives must be Undersecretaries or their equivalent, attached to the Secretariats that comprise the Commission and whose field of competence is related to the matters to be dealt with. The appointment of the members of the Committee of Representatives shall be notified to the Chairman of the Committee by the heads of the Secretaries that make it up, within thirty business days of the date of such appointment.

ARTICLE 27. The matters submitted to the Committee for consideration shall be resolved at the meeting of the members of the Committee, or by the written opinion of each of them or the Committee of Representatives. In the latter case each of its members shall have five business days, counted from the day on which the matters were presented, to issue the corresponding vote. After the said period has expired without the members of the Commission or the Committee of Representatives objecting or issuing and communicating the corresponding vote, they shall be deemed to have cast a favorable vote on the matters that have been submitted for their consideration and resolution.

The Technical Secretary of the Commission shall send to each of the members of the Commission or of the Committee of Representatives a written report on the resolutions of the cases submitted to it, within seven business days of the date in which the corresponding resolutions are issued.

ARTICLE 28. Meetings of Commission officials may be convened by the Chairman of such Inter-Secretariat body or, as the case may be, by its Executive Secretary. The call must be made in writing, and must contain the agenda and be addressed to each member of the Commission at least eight business days in advance of the meeting.
In order for the Commission to be considered as having a meeting, at least half of the members must be present. If the meeting can not be held on the scheduled date, a second call will be made, indicating in it such circumstance. The meeting held on second call shall be resolved on the subjects indicated in the agenda, regardless of the number of holders present.

The meetings of the Committee of Representatives may be convened and chaired by the Executive Secretary or, where appropriate, the Technical Secretary. The call must be made in writing, and must contain the agenda and be addressed to each member of the committee at least eight business days in advance of the meeting.

In order for the Committee of Representatives to be considered, at least half of the representatives shall be present and shall resolve by a majority of the votes present. If the meeting can not be held on the scheduled date, a second call will be made, indicating in it such circumstance. The meeting held on second call shall be resolved on the subjects indicated in the agenda, regardless of the number of holders present.

The members of the Committee of Representatives may appoint a Director General or equivalent as an alternate, to attend the meetings of said organ.

Once the meeting of the members of the Commission or the Committee of Representatives has been held, the minutes of the meeting must be sent to each of the members of these bodies, within seven business days of the date of the meeting.

ARTICLE 29.- In order for the Commission to resolve the applications submitted for its consideration, applicants must submit them to the Executive Secretary of the Commission:

I. Written request, in original and a simple copy, describing the main characteristics of the project, as well as the general identification data of the applicant;

II. Questionnaire, in original and a simple copy, that must contain the mention of the type of project to be carried out by the applicant and the data that prove the benefits of the project for the economy of the country;

III. In case the applicant is a natural person, updated curriculum or biographical summary of the foreign investor;

IV. If the applicant is a foreign legal entity, annual report or description of activities of the last fiscal year;

V. In the case of a company already established, constitutive act and audited financial statements corresponding to the last fiscal year;

VI. When it is intended to establish a branch in the Mexican Republic, constitutive act and by-laws of the foreign moral person, and

VII. Proof of payment of rights provided for in the Federal Rights Law, in original and simple copy.

In the case of foreign companies, the constitutive act referred to in the previous fraction VI must be legalized before a Mexican consul or, when applicable, apostilled in accordance with the Decree of Promulgation of the Convention, which eliminates the requirement of Legalization of Foreign Public Documents.

Documents submitted in a language other than Spanish should be accompanied by a translation made by an expert translator.

ARTICLE 29 Bis.-In order for the Commission to resolve the request for an opinion referred to in article 77 of the Federal Law of Telecommunications and Broadcasting, the company in question must submit to the Executive Secretary of the Commission the following:

I. Written request, in original and simple copy, describing the identification data of the applicant company, as well as its current structure or proposed capital, including all partners, associates, shareholders, funds, trusts or any entity which participates or would participate in the capital of said company, directly or indirectly;

II. Deed, certificate, record or other instrument of incorporation, as well as the bylaws or instrument by which the applicant company is governed. Said documents must also be presented by any person or entity that participates or intends to participate directly in the capital of the applicant company or in an indirect way, in the latter case in accordance with fraction V of this article;

III. The data and documents that clearly demonstrate the detail of the current structure or proposed capital of the applicant company referred to in fraction I of this article, as well as those necessary to determine, as appropriate, the nationality, value and characteristics of each participation, including any person or entity that participates or intends to participate directly in the capital of the company or indirectly, in the latter case in accordance with fraction V of this article;

IV. If applicable, any trust, agreement, social or statutory agreement, scheme or any other mechanism that grants control, a greater participation or special rights in favor of any of the persons or entities referred to in fraction I of this article, both for the case of those who participate directly or indirectly, in the latter case in accordance with fraction V of this article;

V. The data and documents indicated in fractions II, III and IV of this article must be presented when a person or entity participates indirectly in the applicant company when:
   a) Has a percentage higher than 49% in, or by any means control, those who participate directly or indirectly in the capital of the applicant company, and/or
   b) Participates, in any proportion, in the capital of a company that participates directly or indirectly in the applicant company, when there is no person or entity that has a percentage greater than 49% or exercises control of the person or entity in question, and

VI. Proof of payment of rights provided for in the Federal Rights Law.

In the case of legal entities or foreign entities, the constitutive or equivalent act must be legalized before a Mexican consul or, when applicable, apostilled in accordance with the Convention, which eliminates the requirement of Legalization of Foreign Public Documents.

Documents submitted in a language other than Spanish should be accompanied by a translation made by an expert translator.

The information indicated in the previous paragraph must be provided at the time of submitting the registration application and within the forty business days following the date on which any change to such information occurs.

The obligation to update the information referred to in this article will only be required when the investment exceeds the amount determined by the Commission through a general resolution published in the Official Journal of the Federation.

ARTICLE 42.- The fiduciary institutions must request the cancellation of the registration of the trusts in the event that they cease to be in the cases referred to in fraction III of article 32 of the Law, within the forty business days following the date it occur.

Chapter IV
From the Common Provisions to the Registry

ARTICLE 43.- The subjects referred to in fractions I and II of article 32 of the Law, shall renew annually their record in accordance with the general resolution issued by the Commission during the first five months of each year, for which it will suffice to present The information referred to in fraction III of article 38 of these Regulations, according to the following schedule that depends on the letter with which initiates the name, legal name or business name of the subject who will submit the information:

I. From A to J, during April of each year, and
II. From K to Z, during May of each year.

In the event that the information referred to in this article is submitted before the month in which it is due to be filed, the filing date shall be the first business day of said month.

ARTICLE 44.- For the purposes of the provisions of article 34 of the Law, public notaries must require the persons required to register in the Registry that accredit their registration through the display of a copy of the acknowledgment of receipt of the delivery of the information to which refers paragraph b) of fraction III of article 38 of these Regulations, relative to the previous immediate fiscal year for which the period in which said notification was due.
In the case of persons who, when they come to the public notary, have not had the obligation to submit the information referred to in paragraph b) of fraction III of article 38 of this Regulation, they must prove their registration through the display of the copy of the acknowledgment of receipt of the application for registration.

In the case of the second and subsequent appearances before a public notary of an obligor to be registered in the Registry, the obligation of notice of the notary in terms of Law shall be complied with if, during the year of appearance, a notice relating to Such person has already been issued.

For purposes of the report referred to in article 34 of the Law, public notaries must do so using the formats approved for that purpose.

ARTICLE 45. The public notaries must insert in the corresponding public instrument the obligation of:

I. Enroll in the Registry, when they intervene in the protocolization of meeting minutes corresponding to legal acts relating to:
   a) Foreign legal entities for registration in the Public Registry of Commerce;
   b) Incorporation of companies in which foreign investment participates;
   c) Shareholders’ meetings by virtue of which enter foreign investment, or
   d) Granting of trusts from which rights are derived in favor of foreign investment;

II. To notify to the Registry, when they intervene in the protocolization of minutes of assembly related to legal acts of companies in which the foreign investment participates, regarding modification in:
   a) Name, registered name or corporate name, or
   b) The share capital or shareholding structure.
   c) Repealed.

ARTICLE 46. In the event that the supporting documentation proving the information presented to the Registry is not available, the corresponding registration or annotation may be made based on a declaration of truth or a certification issued by the presidents or secretaries of the boards of directors or meetings of members, sole administrators, directors, managers and legal representatives with sufficient powers to record what corresponds to the statutes, books, records and other documents of the companies, and the rights and obligations of shareholders or shareholders to them.

EIGHTH TITLE

OF THE COMPLEMENTARY PROVISIONS

ARTICLE 47. The legal representatives and fiduciary delegates will be responsible for the veracity of the data regarding the requests, notices and reports, as well as the documents they provide in accordance with these Regulations, when they do not provide the Registry with the name, address and telephone number of the person responsible for the accuracy of the data and documents mentioned.

ARTICLE 48. The Secretariat may extend the deadlines set forth in these Regulations for compliance with the obligations set forth herein, as well as in the requirements and authorizations issued by the Secretariat itself, provided that extensions are requested before the respective periods expire.

Extensions shall be granted for a maximum period of half of the term originally established, provided that they have been requested in advance in writing and that special circumstances exist that objectively justify granting them, and prior full rights provided by applicable tax law.

ARTICLE 49. The Secretariat shall at all times have the power to require those obliged by Law and these Regulations to present any means of proof in order to ascertain the veracity of the data contained in the requests, notices and reports and to verify compliance with the provisions of the Law, these Regulations and the corresponding General Resolutions.

In order to keep up to date and complete the information regarding the persons and trusts registered in the Registry in accordance with article 32 of the Law, the Secretariat may require the obligors to provide the Registry with the information indicated in Articles 38 and 41 of these Regulations, whenever there are special circumstances that justify it.

The requirements issued by the Secretariat, based on the powers established in this article, must be fulfilled by the requested persons within the periods expressly set forth in them, which may not be less than five business days.

ARTICLE 50.- The Commission, when establishing in general resolutions the amounts of investment that will determine the obligation to submit to the Registry the information referred to in this Regulation, will consider the investments that are statistically significant for the measurement of foreign investment flows.

ARTICLE 51.- The Secretariat may at any time carry out surveys to the subjects registered in the Registry in order to obtain information relevant to the preparation of statistics or diagnoses on the impact of foreign investment on the national economy.
