

Organization Manual

This Manual aims to precisely outline the inner workings of the Senasica, which is a Decentralized Administrative Body, by specifying the contributions of the many areas with the fundamental purpose of assisting in the performance of their vested powers, pursuant to the Inner Regulations of the Secretariat of Agriculture and Rural Development, and ensure at the national level the health and safety of animal and vegetable sourced products, for the benefit of society.