

Reducing the incidence of infections through effective preventive, hygiene and health measures

Objective 3 involves the following strategies: strengthening community programs to prevent and control infectious diseases; promoting improvement programs in food processing; strengthening and promoting prevention and control of health-care-associated infections (IAAS). As well as coordinating a National Strategy for Basic Sanitation and Hygiene.