

Annual activity report

National Phytosanitary Reference Center

With a view to make public the compliance and monitoring of activities carried out by the National Phytosanitary Reference Center, in observance of its attributions and authority, reports are brought forward, which concentrate and highlight activities and results, which are the product of work efforts and are conducive to obtaining results; such reports summarize the coordinated efforts of all collaborators and areas which comprise this organization in order to attain different institutional goals and objectives.