

Work Plans - Plant Health Imports

Work plans are binational documents that set forth plant health measures in order to prevent pests of quarantine interest from being introduced into Mexico, in connection with the importation of products and byproducts of plant origin, with a view to guarantee phytosanitary conditions in shipments and expedite trade between National Plant Protection Organizations.