

Citrus Black Spot

Pest under active surveillance

This is a disease caused by the Guignardia citricarpa fungus, which is considered one of the most important diseases in the citrus agricultural sector. The main hosts of this disease are Citrus species. The most important citrus fruits are limes, oranges, tangerines, lemons and grapefruits.